DETAILED ACTION

This Office action is in response to applicant's amendment filed on 5/28/200 5/28/2008.

Status of Claims

Claims 1-3 and 8 are pending.

Claims 4-7 have been withdrawn.

Claims 9-17 have been cancelled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2 and 8 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Pat. No. 6,015,139 to Weber.

Claim1:

Weber disclose an anchor device 2 for capable of using in a shear wall that positioned on a structural support, the compression post comprising: a plate 10 having a first surface mountable to bottom surface of an end post of a shear wall, the first surface of the plate having dimensions selected to conform to the bottom surface of the end post, the plate having a second surface, generally parallel to the first surface; and an extended portion 12 positioned generally perpendicular to the second surface of the plate 10, the extended portion having at least one dimension selected to fit through a hole in a mudsill of the shear wall, the extended portion having an exposed end displaced from the second surface of the plate by a length selected to conform to a thickness of the mudsill such that when the compression post is mounted to the end post of the shear wall and the shear wall is mounted on a structural support, the exposed end of the extended portion rests on the structural support and forces applied to the compression post by the end post are communicated via the plate and the extended portion to the structural support (see Figs. 1-3).

Claim 2:

Wherein the extended portion is secured to the plate.

Claim 8: Wherein the extended portion is cylindrical and the at least one dimension is an outside diameter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US Pat. No. 6,015,139 to Weber.

Weber discloses the basic structures as stated but does not expressly disclose wherein the extended portion is secured to the plate by at least one weld. However, this feature would have been a matter of obvious design choice to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to secure the plate and the extension portion together by weld as a well-known method in the art that how to connect two members.

Furthermore, applicant has not disclosed the criticality of this feature.

Response to Arguments

Applicant argues: Weber does not disclose an anchor device capable of being used in a shear wall positioned on a structural support; Weber does not disclose a compression post comprising a plate having a first surface mountable to a bottom surface of an end post of a shear wall; Weber does not disclose a first surface having dimensions selected to conform to the bottom surface of an end post; Weber does not disclose an extended portion having at least one dimension selected to fit through a hole in a mudsill of a shear wall; Weber does not disclose an extended portion having an exposed end displaced from the second surface by a length selected to conform to the thickness of the mudsill. The applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because the applicant's argued limitations are not positive claimed, e.g. a shear wall, mudsill, or structural support is not positively claimed with a compression post and it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not different the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex Parte Masham, 2 USPQ F.2d 1647 (1987).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
